

INVESTOR EDUCATION AND PROTECTION NOTICE

Fenix Securities, LLC is committed to maintaining transparency and ensuring our customers have access to valuable resources. We want you to have access to information about financial professionals and firms. This notice is being made available to make you aware that the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) provides the public with information to educate and protect. This information is aimed at empowering you with the knowledge you need to make informed decisions regarding your investments. Here are the details of the information you should be aware of:

FINRA BrokerCheck Hotline Number: If you have any questions about a broker's background, qualifications, and history of regulatory actions, you can contact the FINRA BrokerCheck Hotline at +1 (800) 289-9999

FINRA Website Address: For online access to comprehensive information about brokerage firms and professionals, please visit the official FINRA website at <https://www.finra.org/#/>

Investor Brochure Availability: An investor brochure is available. This brochure will help you understand how to use BrokerCheck effectively to research financial professionals and make well-informed decisions about your investments. <https://www.finra.org/sites/default/files/InvestorDocument/p009888.pdf>